Thank you for your Power of Prayer!

We at St. Thomas have been praying for Cole who was diagnosed with kidney cancer (Wilms Tumor) in January. He was just four years old. Children's Hospital removed his kidney and he immediately began chemo twice a month along with radiation treatments until the end of August. The good news is that Cole is cancer free and was able to ring the bell two weeks ago! His family wants to thank everyone at St. Thomas for all of the prayers said for Cole! Glory and praise to God for this miracle!!

Looking for crafters for the Dec. 5th Craft & Vendor event held at St. Thomas. Booth reservations will be available on a first come first serve basis. Please contact Nancy Robison at 920-973-8696.

Eucharist Pyxes

May we please kindly ask that if you have been lent a pyx to bring Eucharist to your loved one, could it please be returned to the parish as soon as possible, so Father may properly purify it and have it available for future use? We appreciate your help so pyxes are available for this important ministry.

Happy Birthday to our members turning 80 or older in November!

Thank you so much for your generosity during our recent special collection for World Mission Sunday. Together, our parish community raised $2,897.00.
Your gifts directly support this global collection. These funds help build churches, fund schools, staff medical clinics, and support priests and sisters in dioceses across the world. Your prayers and financial contributions bring hope to those who need them most.

Alegraos, porque vuestra recompensa será grande en los cielos

Jesús, como en tantas otras ocasiones ha salido a predicar en descampado. Sus apóstoles y el gentío le siguen gustosos, porque saben que el Maestro tiene palabras de vida eterna.

El pueblo de Israel, vagaba desconcertado por sus propios guías, los escribas, fariseos y saduceos, a quienes Jesús calificó de guías ciegos. Ahora que aparece Jesús, ¿será el Mesías? se preguntan muchos para sus adentros, pero no encuentran en El nada de la figura de un libertador terreno, lleno de poder y castigador de sus adversarios, tan prometido por sus maestros.

Al contrario, para quienes venían buscando liberación política para Israel, topan con un Mesías que les propone el camino de la abnegación, de la humildad, de la pobreza, del sufrimiento... Pero todo esto basado en una recompensa grande en el Reino de los Cielos.

El sermón de la montaña ha resonado tantísimas veces en el corazón de los cristianos de todos los tiempos, y ha sido para todos, el mensaje de la esperanza, en medio del vaivén de las dificultades del mundo. Es la paradoja de la fe, reducida su más clara expresión: bienaventurados los que lloran, porque ellos serán consolados. Es la promesa que todos deseamos ver cumplida algún día. Pero el cristiano no es el que simplemente se resigna a todo lo que le venga. El discípulo de Cristo, empuña el arado todos los días, remueve obstáculos, limpia el terreno, trabaja, porque sabe que su esfuerzo siempre será remunerado, si no aquí, sí en la otra vida.

Por eso las bienaventuranzas no son sólo promesas para esperar, son todo un programa de vida para reformar esta tierra. Si por un día todos los hombres fuéramos pobres de espíritu, mansos de corazón, pacíficos, misericordiosos, limpios de corazón, podríamos traer el cielo a la tierra. Es cierto que el Señor permite el mal en nuestras sociedades, la desorientación y las injusticias, pero no podemos olvidar que si lo permite, es porque está seguro de obtener de todo ello un bien mayor.

Propósito

Como cristianos nos toca testimoniar este mensaje, viviéndolo en la sencillez y cotidianidad de nuestra vida profesional y familiar, dejando a Dios la posibilidad de iluminar al mundo con la luz que emane de nuestras vidas.

A Historical Day at St. Thomas the Apostle...

We are proud to announce that Knights of Columbus, Council 710, has begun its very first council here at St. Thomas the Apostle! On Sunday, October 18th, 2026, the Knights held an exemplification ceremony following the 10:00 Mass to induct 30 new members into the Knights of Columbus. Nine additional new members are still to be inducted; and twelve others are transferring to the St. Thomas Council from elsewhere as well. God bless this newly formed fraternity of men of charitable work! May all their works be blessed!
