Letter from Father Dave /Carta del padre Dave

Dear Folks,

Today we begin in earnest the Sundays of Ordinary Time, a time to enter into the rhythm and life of the liturgical year more deeply. By this time, most of our young people have graduated or finished the year from various high schools and colleges. Our heart-felt congratulations to the graduates of Kiel, Lincoln, Roncalli and Valders High Schools. Our Church's prayers go with you as you turn yet another page in your lives. Jesus is ever with you, tucked deeply in your hearts. You are NEVER alone!

Please don't forget to register your children for "Come to the Table" the theme of our Vacation Bible School this July. As you can see, this year's Bible School will have a Eucharistic theme.

As of June 30, the Church's fiscal year will come to a close. Please pray and share any financial gifts with the Church by that date. The financial commitment that we make to our Church Community is amazing! Please continue to share as best you can. As always, I will raise my tithing gift once again, so that we can more than survive but thrive as a Spirit-filled community of faith. Won't you join me? It's not how much we give, but that we give together!

Finally, a gentle reminder that the parish office will be open on Fridays 8:00am-Noon, as no one or very few people come to or call the office on Friday afternoons.

In Christ's Peace,
Fr. Dave

Queridos hermanos:

Hoy comenzamos formalmente los domingos del Tiempo Ordinario, un tiempo para adentrarnos más profundamente en el ritmo y la vida del año litúrgico. A estas alturas, la mayoría de nuestros jóvenes ya se han graduado o han concluido el año académico en sus respectivas escuelas secundarias y universidades. Nuestras más sinceras felicitaciones a los graduados de las escuelas secundarias de Kiel, Lincoln, Roncalli y Valders. Las oraciones de nuestra Iglesia los acompañan al pasar una página más en sus vidas. Jesús está siempre con ustedes, guardado en lo más profundo de sus corazones. ¡NUNCA están solos!

Por favor, no olviden inscribir a sus hijos en «Vengan a la Mesa» (Come to the Table), el tema de nuestra Escuela Bíblica de Verano para este mes de julio. Como pueden ver, la Escuela Bíblica de este año tendrá una temática eucarística.

El 30 de junio finalizará el año fiscal de la Iglesia. Les rogamos que oren y hagan llegar sus donativos económicos a la Iglesia antes de esa fecha. ¡El compromiso financiero que asumimos con nuestra comunidad parroquial es extraordinario! Por favor, continúen colaborando en la medida de sus posibilidades. Como siempre, yo volveré a aumentar mi ofrenda del diezmo, para que nuestra comunidad de fe —llena del Espíritu— no solo logre sobrevivir, sino que prospere plenamente. ¿Se unirán a mí? ¡Lo importante no es la cantidad que damos, sino el hecho de dar juntos!

Por último, un amable recordatorio: la oficina parroquial permanecerá abierta los viernes de 8:00 a. m. a 12:00 del mediodía, dado que son muy pocas —o ninguna— las personas que acuden a la oficina o llaman por teléfono durante las tardes de los viernes.

En la paz de Cristo,
P. Dave

Jesús no se da abasto

Por: Álvaro García, LC | Fuente: somosrc.mx

Jesús envía a los doce Apóstoles: Juan, Santiago, Mateo, tú y yo... Es bonito cómo el Evangelio remarca que Pedro era «el primero de todos». Esta es una buena ocasión para unirme al Papa e interesarme por sus exhortaciones y discursos. ¿Qué ha dicho? ¿Cuál es el centro de su mensaje? ¿Me he preocupado por extenderlo? El papa Francisco, nos lleva por los caminos de la misericordia del Padre.

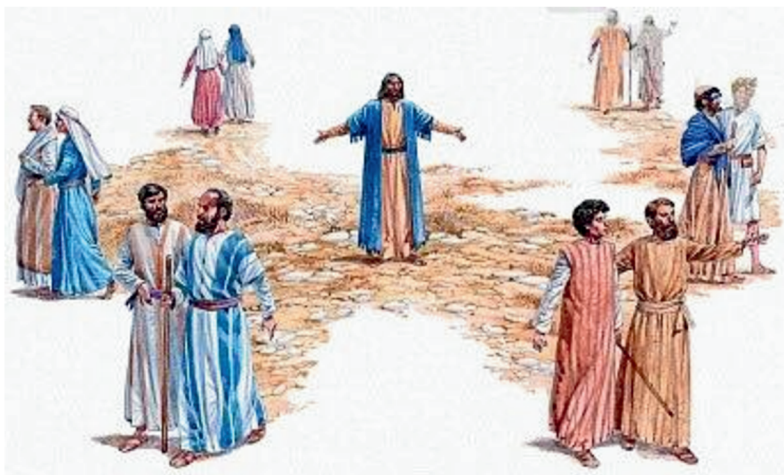

Jesús vio a las multitudes como ovejas sin pastor. Y nos podemos preguntar: ¿pero no podría haber hecho algo con su omnipotencia para atender a todos sin excepción? ¿Por qué no se quedó entre nosotros para guiarlas? ¿No podría haberse multiplicado? Si nos ponemos a reflexionar, el Señor sí ha hecho algo extraordinario para cuidar a cada persona, para atender cada alma sin excepción: nos envió su Espíritu.

Ya ha pasado la Navidad. La Pascua ya se fue. Ahora estamos en el tiempo litúrgico más largo que es el tiempo ordinario. Es el tiempo del Espíritu Santo, en el que quiere transformar cada minuto de nuestra vida cotidiana. Jesús nos lo envió para que hiciera nuestros corazones como el suyo, de forma que cada cristiano sea otro Cristo, disponible y dispuesto a amar su rebaño como Él lo haría. Jesús sí se ha multiplicado: está en la Eucaristía (claramente), y está en nosotros. Ha querido que su amor llegue a cada persona a través nuestro.

Todos somos esos apóstoles enviados. Todos tenemos la misión de ser santos y expandir el Reino. Sin embargo, hoy el Evangelio también nos invita a rezar por las vocaciones al sacerdocio, por esos elegidos que segarán el plantío del Señor in Persona Christi.

«Cuántas veces hemos escuchado en el Evangelio esta emoción de Jesús, con esa frase que se repite: “Viendo, tuvo compasión”. Jesús no puede mirar a la gente y no sentir compasión. Sus ojos miran con el corazón; Jesús ve con sus ojos, pero ve con su corazón y es capaz de llorar. Hoy, ante un mundo que sufre tanto, ante tanta gente, me pregunto: ¿soy capaz de llorar, como seguramente lo habría hecho Jesús y lo hace ahora? ¿Mi corazón se parece al de Jesús? Y si es demasiado duro, si bien soy capaz de hablar, de hacer el bien, de ayudar, pero mi corazón no entra, no soy capaz de llorar, debo pedir esta gracia al Señor: Señor, que yo llore contigo, que llore con tu pueblo que en este momento sufre. Muchos lloran hoy. Y nosotros, desde este altar, desde este sacrificio de Jesús, de Jesús que no se avergonzó de llorar, pedimos la gracia de llorar. Que hoy sea para todos nosotros como el domingo del llanto».

(Homilía SS Francisco, 20 de marzo de 2020)
