OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." - Jn 18:37

Pilato le dijo: "¿Conque tú eres rey?" Jesús le contestó: "Tú lo has dicho. Soy rey. Yo nací y vine al mundo para ser testigo de la verdad. Todo el que es de la verdad, escucha mi voz". - Jn 18, 37

Dear Folks,

Grace and Peace! A couple of Sundays ago, we listened to Jesus speak of the Scribes, how they enjoyed the praise of others as they shared their gifts. Then the widow came forward with two small coins, symbolic of her giving her very self. We shared that the widow gave herself in those two small coins, while the Scribes gave something.

These are truly challenging days for many, living paycheck to paycheck and struggling to make ends meet regarding food, rent and many other things. I am so grateful for the sacrifices we make for our Church and the ways we tend to our people. We go out of our way to bring people meals. We nourish them by bringing them the Sunday Gospel. We share Eucharist, Jesus Himself, broken and shared from our Sunday Liturgy. In our busy days we spend extra time, stopping in for a five minute visit that turns into an hour.

We look at our budget and pray, and come to the conclusion we will not miss a few extra dollars each week, month or year, being good stewards of all we have been given. We cut down trees and rake lawns, drive to Ohio with bells, and plan events. Most importantly, we pray over each other, clinging to faith even when all seems dark, clinging to the tassel of Jesus' garment for healing, when nothing else makes sense.

We go beyond our walls and assist others in our world in need, keep people warm and fed, all the while (with or without words) spreading the Good News of the One in whom we place all of our hope and trust: Jesus. You see, trust is the key. If we give in to fear, we will hold all we own close in a spirit of maintaining, afraid to share, echoing the words of our culture: this is mine! What do you want? Our community is strong precisely because we believe we have been rescued by Christ and can live by the power of the Holy Spirit. All we are and all we have is pure gift. It is in that Spirit that we continue to trust in a bright future, whether on earth or in heaven!

This Thanksgiving Day, my heart is truly grateful. If it fits our schedules, let's join together this Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, for our Liturgy at 9:00am!

Thanks, just thanks,
Fr. Dave

Queridos amigos,

¡Gracia y paz! Hace un par de domingos, escuchamos a Jesús hablar de los escribas, de cómo disfrutaban de los elogios de los demás al compartir sus dones. Entonces la viuda se acercó con dos pequeñas monedas, símbolo de su entrega. Compartimos que la viuda se entregó a sí misma en esas dos pequeñas monedas, mientras que los escribas dieron algo.

Estos son días verdaderamente difíciles para muchos, que viven de sueldo a sueldo y luchan por llegar a fin de mes con respecto a la comida, el alquiler y muchas otras cosas. Estoy muy agradecido por los sacrificios que hacemos por nuestra Iglesia y por la forma en que atendemos a nuestra gente. Nos esforzamos por llevarles comida a las personas. Los alimentamos llevándoles el Evangelio del domingo. Compartimos la Eucaristía, Jesús mismo, partido y compartido de nuestra Liturgia dominical. En nuestros días ocupados dedicamos tiempo extra, parando para una visita de cinco minutos que se convierte en una hora.

Miramos nuestro presupuesto y oramos, y llegamos a la conclusión de que no nos faltarán unos cuantos dólares extra cada semana, mes o año, siendo buenos administradores de todo lo que se nos ha dado. Cortamos árboles y cortamos el césped, conducimos hasta Ohio con campanas y planificamos eventos. Lo más importante es que oramos los unos sobre los otros, aferrándonos a la fe incluso cuando todo parece oscuro, aferrándonos a la borla del manto de Jesús para sanar, cuando nada más tiene sentido.

Vamos más allá de nuestros muros y ayudamos a otros en nuestro mundo que lo necesitan, mantenemos a la gente abrigada y alimentada, todo el tiempo (con o sin palabras) difundiendo la Buena Nueva de Aquel en quien depositamos toda nuestra esperanza y confianza: Jesús. Verá, la confianza es la clave. Si cedemos al miedo, nos aferramos a todo lo que poseemos con un espíritu de conservación, temerosos de compartir, haciendo eco de las palabras de nuestra cultura: ¡esto es mío! ¿Qué quieres? Nuestra comunidad es fuerte precisamente porque creemos que hemos sido rescatados por Cristo y podemos vivir por el poder del Espíritu Santo. Todo lo que somos y todo lo que tenemos es puro don. ¡Es en ese Espíritu que seguimos confiando en un futuro brillante, ya sea en la tierra o en el cielo!

Este Día de Acción de Gracias, mi corazón está verdaderamente agradecido. Si se adapta a nuestro horario, ¡reunámonos este jueves, Día de Acción de Gracias, para nuestra liturgia a las 9:00 a. m.!

Gracias, solo gracias, Padre Dave

¿Qué es la Transubstanciación? Parte 3

Es un misterio altísimo, singular, superior a la capacidad de toda inteligencia creada. ¡Es el Misterio de la fe!

Por: P. Carlos Miguel Buela, VE | Fuente: iveargentina.com

«La Presencia Real» Omnipotencia de Dios

El sacerdote ministerial predica la Palabra de Dios, presenta a Dios los dones de pan y vino, los inmola y los ofrece al transubstanciarlos en el Cuerpo y la Sangre del Señor, obrando en nombre y con el poder del mismo Cristo, de modo tal que, por sobre él sólo está el poder de Dios, como enseña Santo Tomás de Aquino: «El acto del sacerdote no depende de potestad alguna superior, sino de la divina», de tal modo, que ni siquiera el Papa, tiene mayor poder que un simple sacerdote, para la consagración del Cuerpo de Cristo: «No tiene el Papa mayor poder que un simple sacerdote».

«Al mandar a los Apóstoles en la Última Cena: Haced esto en memoria mía (Lc 22,19; 1Cor 11,24.25), les ordena reiterar el rito del Sacrificio eucarístico de mi Cuerpo que será entregado y de mi Sangre que será derramada (Lc 22,19; 1Cor 11,24.25). Enseña el Concilio de Trento que Jesucristo, en la Última Cena, al ofrecer su Cuerpo y Sangre sacramentados: “a sus apóstoles, a quienes entonces constituía sacerdotes del Nuevo Testamento, a ellos y a sus sucesores en el sacerdocio, les mandó ... que los ofrecieran”». Y esto por el poder divino, ya que existe «en la misma transformación, una selección que indica penetración extraordinaria; dentro de una misma cosa material hay algo que cambia y algo que permanece inmutable; además el cambio produce algo nuevo...». En la Divina Invocación, como llamaban muchos Santos Padres a la consagración, se da:

1. Una selección: entre la substancia y los accidentes;
2. Una penetración extraordinaria: distinguir ambos elementos, para que desaparezca uno y permanezca el otro;
3. Algo nuevo aparece: el Cuerpo entregado y la Sangre derramada de Cristo, bajo especie ajena, o sea, sacramental.

Por esto, la conversión del pan y del vino en la Misa, implica dificultades más grandes que respecto a la creación del mundo, como dice Santo Tomás de Aquino: «En esta conversión hay más cosas difíciles que en la creación, en la que sólo es difícil hacer algo de la nada. Crear, sin embargo, es propio de la Causa Primera, que no presupone nada para su operación. Pero en la conversión sacramental (de la Eucaristía) no sólo es difícil que este todo (el pan y el vino) se transforme en este otro todo (el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo), de modo que nada quede del anterior, cosa que no pertenece al modo corriente de producir, sino que también queden los accidentes desaparecida la substancia...».

Queridos hermanos y hermanas:

Crezcamos siempre en la fe y el amor a Nuestro Señor presente en la Eucaristía. Estimemos por «justa y conveniente» la palabra exacta que expresa la conversión del pan y del vino: ¡Transubstanciación!, que debería sonar en nuestros oídos como música celestial.

Y admiremos siempre el poder de Dios que allí se manifiesta, como lo hace el pueblo fiel que dice, con las palabras del Apóstol Tomás, después de ocurrida la transustanciación: ¡Señor mío y Dios mío! (Jn 20,28).

KC Council Continues to Support Religious Vocations

For a number of years, KC Council 710 has been providing financial support to Green Bay seminarians. This tradition continues as this year we are supporting two seminarians, Nicholas Klika and Benedict Wood. In light of the ongoing Vocations Awareness effort, we are proud to note that since the beginning of this national Knights of Columbus program in 1981, $100 million of support to men and women discerning the priesthood or religious life has been made by Knights of Columbus Councils around the globe.

IN SERVICE TO ONE. IN SERVICE TO ALL.

The reverse grocery collection each month benefits local organizations. Please continue to help our community with hygiene and non-perishable grocery items. The grocery drop-off box is found in the corner of the gathering space.

Please grab a purple slip on your way out of church and return the item the following week.
