Mission Statement

St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Community exists to be a vibrant faith-filled community, proclaiming with our lives that God is deeply in love with us. Through open hearts, meaningful worship and compassionate service, we model the Spirit of Christ in the world today.

May 28, 2023 / 28 de mayo de 2023

Dear Folks,

As we gather this Pentecost Sunday, may the Holy Spirit fill our hearts with the fire of God's Love! How could all those people from different lands and languages understand what the Apostles were saying? When the language of Love is spoken from hearts on fire for the Lord, strangers begin to speak with each other, enemies take the first steps toward meeting with each other, and those who were estranged find friendship and community. May the Holy Spirit, already dwelling in our hearts through Baptism, be ignited by the Eternal Spirit, the Eternal Person who gives Life!

May I ask once more that we invite all the folks we can to discover and experience our weekend Liturgies, as we celebrate God's deep love for us in Jesus. Please invite folks to rediscover for the first time the beauty of Eucharist and our community. Don't be shy! Invite those you know and love to experience what you do each weekend.

With Joy!
Fr. Dave

JUNE 17 - 12-4 PM HENRY'S MEDICAL EXPENSE FUNDRAISER

Balde Farm - 5628 Brunner Rd. Manitowoc

Henry was born with a rare neuromuscular condition called X-Linked Myotubular Myopathy. The condition makes his muscles very weak, so he is in a wheelchair at all times and needs a ventilator and trach to breathe. He was at Children's Hospital in Milwaukee for over 2 years, but now he's thriving and doing well and actually just got back from his make-a-wish trip to Disney where he fulfilled his wish to meet Crush from Finding Nemo. Henry is such a silly kiddo and I'm sure if you ever met him you would agree. He never lets his disease bring him down that is for sure. This fundraiser is to help pay for medical expenses.

St. Thomas the Apostle David J. Driscoll Memorial Scholarship Recipients

Dear the Education Committee,

I am writing this letter to express my heartfelt gratitude for awarding me the Driscoll Scholarship. It is truly an honor and privilege to receive the prestigious award. I cannot thank you enough for your generosity and support. I will work hard and continue to strive for excellence in all I do.

Sincerely,
Hannah Dvorak

Dear St. Thomas Community,

I am honored to be one of the recipients of this scholarship. I enjoy being active in our church through serving, cutting lawn, and being part of our OTIS youth group. I think that has taught me to be a good disciple of Jesus. I am excited to share my faith with my future classmates and teammates at Upper Iowa University!

Thank you so much. Many Blessings!

8 claves para saber qué se celebra en Pentecostés

By. aciprensa.com

Para comprender más de esta fecha, aquí presentamos 8 claves.

1. Proviene de la palabra griega que significa "quincuagésimo" (pentecoste) La razón es que Pentecostés es el quincuagésimo día (en griego, pentecoste hemera) después del Domingo de Pascua (en el calendario cristiano). Este nombre se empezó a usar en el período tardío del Antiguo Testamento y fue heredado por los autores del Nuevo Testamento.

2. Esta festividad tiene otros nombres La fiesta de las semanas, la fiesta de la cosecha o el día de los primeros frutos, son algunos. Hoy en día en los círculos judíos se le conoce como Shavu'ot (en hebreo, "semanas"). Además, se le conoce con diferentes nombres en varios idiomas. En los países de habla inglesa también se le ha conocido como "White Sunday" (Domingo Blanco), nombre que se deriva probablemente de las prendas blancas de los recién bautizados.

3. Pentecostés fue otro tipo de fiesta en el Antiguo Testamento fue un festival para la cosecha y significaba que esta estaba llegando a su fin. Deuteronomio 16 dice:

"Luego contarás siete semanas; las contarás desde el día en que comiences a cortar el trigo. Entonces celebrarás la fiesta de las Siete Semanas a Yahvé, tu Dios, haciéndole ofrendas voluntarias según lo que hayas cosechado por la gracia de Yahvé, tu Dios". (Dt. 16:9-10)

4. En el Nuevo Testamento representa el cumplimiento de la promesa de Cristo representa el cumplimiento de la promesa de Cristo al final del Evangelio de San Lucas: "Les dijo: 'Todo esto estaba escrito: los padecimientos del Mesías y su resurrección de entre los muertos al tercer día. Luego debe proclamarse en su nombre el arrepentimiento y el perdón de los pecados, comenzando por Jerusalén, y yendo después a todas las naciones, invitándolas a que se conviertan. Ustedes son testigos de todo esto. Ahora yo voy a enviar sobre ustedes lo que mi Padre prometió. Permanezcan, pues, en la ciudad hasta que sean revestidos de la fuerza que viene de arriba'". (Lc. 24:46-49)

5. El Espíritu Santo tiene diferentes símbolos en el Nuevo Testamento

Hechos 2 recuerda: "Cuando llegó el día de Pentecostés, estaban todos reunidos en el mismo lugar. De repente vino del cielo un ruido, como el de una violenta ráfaga de viento, que llenó toda la casa donde estaban, y aparecieron unas lenguas como de fuego que se repartieron y fueron posándose sobre cada uno de ellos. Todos quedaron llenos del Espíritu Santo y comenzaron a hablar en otras lenguas, según el Espíritu les concedía que se expresaran". Este pasaje contiene dos símbolos del Espíritu Santo y su actividad: el viento y el fuego. El viento es un símbolo básico del Espíritu Santo; la palabra griega que significa "Espíritu" (Pneuma) también significa "viento" y "aliento". Aunque el término usado para "viento" en este pasaje es pneoe (un término relacionado con pneuma), al lector se le da a entender la conexión entre el viento fuerte y el Espíritu Santo. En relación al símbolo del fuego el Catecismo señala:

Mientras que el agua significaba el nacimiento y la fecundidad de la vida dada en el Espíritu Santo, el fuego simboliza la energía transformadora de los actos del Espíritu Santo. El profeta Elías que "surgió [...] como el fuego y cuya palabra abrasaba como antorcha" (Si 48, 1), con su oración, atrajo el fuego del cielo sobre el sacrificio del monte Carmelo (cf. 1 R 18, 38-39), figura del fuego del Espíritu Santo que transforma lo que toca. Juan Bautista, "que precede al Señor con el espíritu y el poder de Elías" (Lc 1, 17), anuncia a Cristo como el que "bautizará en el Espíritu Santo y el fuego" (Lc 3, 16), Espíritu del cual Jesús dirá: "He venido a traer fuego sobre la tierra y ¡cuánto desearía que ya estuviese encendido!" (Lc 12, 49). En forma de lenguas "como de fuego" se posó el Espíritu Santo sobre los discípulos la mañana de Pentecostés y los llenó de él (Hch 2, 3-4). La tradición espiritual conservará este simbolismo del fuego como uno de los más expresivos de la acción del Espíritu Santo (cf. San Juan de la Cruz, Llama de amor viva). "No extingáis el Espíritu" (1 Ts 5, 19). (CIC 696)

6. Existe una conexión entre las "lenguas" de fuego y el hablar en otras "lenguas"

Sí. En ambos casos la palabra griega para "lenguas" es la misma (glossai), y el lector está destinado a entender la conexión. La palabra "lengua" se utiliza para significar tanto una "llama (fuego)" como "lenguaje". Las "lenguas como de fuego" que se distribuyen y se almacenan sobre los discípulos, provocan que empiecen a hablar milagrosamente en "otras lenguas" (es decir, los idiomas) Ese es el resultado de la acción del Espíritu Santo, representado por el fuego.

7. El Espíritu Santo es Dios Según el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, el Espíritu Santo es la "Tercera Persona de la Santísima Trinidad". Es decir, habiendo un sólo Dios, existen en Él tres personas distintas: Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo. Esta verdad ha sido revelada por Jesús en su Evangelio. El Espíritu Santo coopera con el Padre y el Hijo desde el comienzo de la historia hasta su consumación, pero es en los últimos tiempos, inaugurados con la Encarnación, cuando el Espíritu se revela y nos es dado, cuando es reconocido y acogido como persona. El Señor Jesús nos lo presenta y se refiere a Él no como una potencia impersonal, sino como una Persona diferente, con un obrar propio y un carácter personal.

8. Pentecostés significa participar de la vida divina de Cristo y ser testigos. La solemnidad de Pentecostés es una de las más importantes en el calendario de la Iglesia y contiene una rica profundidad de significado. De esta forma lo resumió Benedicto XVI el 27 de mayo del 2012: "Esta solemnidad nos hace recordar y revivir la efusión del Espíritu Santo sobre los Apóstoles y los demás discípulos, reunidos en oración con la Virgen María en el Cenáculo (cf. Hch 2, 1-11). Jesús, después de resucitar y subir al cielo, envía a la Iglesia su Espíritu para que cada cristiano pueda participar en su misma vida divina y se convierta en su testigo en el mundo. El Espíritu Santo, irrumpiendo en la historia, derrota su aridez, abre los corazones a la esperanza, estimula y favorece en nosotros la maduración interior en la relación con Dios y con el prójimo".

Queridos amigos,

Mientras nos reunimos este domingo de Pentecostés, ¡que el Espíritu Santo llene nuestros corazones con el fuego del amor de Dios! ¿Cómo podían todas esas personas de diferentes países y lenguas entender lo que decían los Apóstoles? Cuando el lenguaje del Amor se pronuncia desde los corazones encendidos por el Señor, los extraños comienzan a hablar entre sí, los enemigos dan los primeros pasos para encontrarse, y los que estaban separados encuentran amistad y comunidad. ¡Que el Espíritu Santo, que ya habita en nuestros corazones por el Bautismo, sea encendido por el Espíritu Eterno, la Persona Eterna que da Vida!

Puedo pedir una vez más que invitemos a todas las personas que podamos a descubrir y experimentar nuestras liturgias de fin de semana, mientras celebramos el profundo amor de Dios por nosotros en Jesús. Por favor invite a la gente a redescubrir por primera vez la belleza de la Eucaristía y de nuestra comunidad. ¡No seas tímido! Invita a las personas que conoces y amas a experimentar lo que haces cada fin de semana.

¡Con alegría!

Padre dave
