Reflect on how God has repaired your own brokenness.
Join us for a hands-on, reflective retreat where you will:

Engage in discussion and prayer

Create a tangible reminder of God's restoration

Inspired by Kintsugi - the ancient Japanese art of repairing broken pottery using lacquer mixed with powdered gold. Instead of hiding cracks, it highlights them turning flaws into beauty. This philosophy teaches us that breakage and repair are part of life, and that our scars can become symbols of strength, resilience, and rebirth. Each golden line tells a story of imperfection embraced and transformation achieved.
